

Bio for CAA

Ambassador Arben Çejku, is one of the founders of the Council of Albanian Ambassador and the current Executive Director of the ACGG (Albanian Centre for Good Governance).

He was Albanian Ambassador to Skopje -Macedonia from February 2009 until November 2013 (from July 2012 – November 2013 was the Dean of Diplomatic Corps in Macedonia).

From 2005 to 2009, Ambassador Çejku served as DCM and Chief of Mission of the Republic of Albania to Kosova. He is a trained diplomat from the Foreign Ministry of Albania (1993-95), as well as the Diplomatic Academy in Vienna (2006) for European Integration Policies and from Austrian Leadership Program in 2016.

He also attended the Diplomatic School in Berlin (1994), the NATO School in Garmisch (1994), and completed a study visit with CNN Financial in New York (1999) etc.

Ambassador Çejku holds a B.A. in history and philology from the University of Tirana (1993). He was journalist in several media in Tirana, like Albanian Telegraphic Agency (ATA), "Albania" daily news, "Republika", newspaper, "Panorama" etc.

He also was Co-founder and Executive Director of the Albanian Diplomatic Academy in 2001 - 2002.

Ambassador Mr. Çejku has published a book about the transition period in Albania, called "Imposed Democracy" (2000) and two other books, one with poetry (1996) and one a fiction book, "Twelve" (2013).

He speak English and German.

Contact: arbencejku@gmail.com