

Dr. Dërgut ALIU M.D.
Advisory Board Member
Pristina, Kosovo

He is a humanist doctor from Bujanovc, specialized in the field of gynecology, who in addition to his important contributions as a patriot and intellectual activist, opened in 1996 the private hospital called Lindja (Birth) with headquarters in Podujevo, which operated until 1999, when the bombing began and it was forced to close since the hospital was completely destroyed by Serbian forces. In September 2000, the hospital was reopened and to this day it functions as the oldest hospital with a private tradition in Kosovo, now headquartered in Pristina. Dr. Aliu is a professionally respected intellectual throughout the region, recognized and praised with national and international awards. He has provided an extraordinary contribution especially to the Preševo Valley cause in particular and to the national one in general.
