

Naim BAJRAKTARI
Advisory Board Member
Pristina, Kosovo

Professionally a jurist, he has accomplished many construction and production projects, with a wide scope throughout the territory of Kosovo, contracting many local and international clients. He opened and launched in 2003 the most frequented restaurant in Pristina – Symphony, which marked and established the tradition with classical features, becoming a frequenting center of diplomats, institutional officials, cultural and artistic figures. In addition to his success in business and being an expert in Safety and Health at Work, he has carried out many philanthropic activities, especially in health field - becoming one of the implementers of the Gift of Life project - through which dozens of children were able to be treated and cured by Italian and American doctors and also in Dardania Rotary Club of Pristina. He has also contributed in the schools and nurseries construction after the last war in Kosovo.