

Skënder PËRPEPAJ
Advisory Board Member
London, United Kingdom

A patriot and long-term activist in the United Kingdom, who by spreading, protecting and upholding the values of our nation, has established numerous friendships with British personalities of the political, cultural and business fields. Providing precious contributions to the Albanian community in the United Kingdom, he has played the role of organizer and unifier and has stood out for his humanity towards people with significant health issues and needs in Kosovo and Albania as well.