

Ambassador VISHO AJAZI LIKA

Ambassador Visho Ajazi Lika has been part (with interruptions) of Albanian Diplomatic Service since 1993.

Some of highlights of his carrier as Public Servant but not only as follows:

2018-2023 Representative of Albanian Delegation to NATO, Ambassador

2012-2017 General Director of State Intelligence Agency of Albania

2010-2012 Deputy Minister of State for Innovation and ICT

1998-2009 Senior software engineer at several companies as EQUIFAX Canada, CBCL Canada, iQor Canada. At the last one he served for 2 years as Vice President for Management Information Systems.

1994-1997 Director at Ministry of Foreign Affairs for Security

1993-1994 joined Foreign Service of Albania, as referent for Spain and Portugal, and later that year I was posted as First Secretary of newly opened Albanian Embassy to Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

1992-1993 Head of Computer Science department at Polytechnic University of Tirana. During this time I had a post PhD research at Polytechnic University of Catalunya, Barcelona (February-June 1993).

1984-1992 junior professor at Computer Science department, Faculty of Natural Sciences.

1982 graduated as Mathematician from Faculty of Natural Sciences, Tirana University

He is married and have two children. Both of them live in Canada.